I&RC@RBD

Innovation & Research Commons @ RBD Library

Innovation & Research Commons
1st Floor, Ralph Brown Draughon Library
231 Mell Street
(334) 844-7398
http://lib.auburn.edu/irc

AUBURN UNIVERSITY
Libraries

Fair Use Image Sources

Copyright

It's best to create your own photos, images, and video. If this is not possible for the content needed, make use of these suggested sites for licensed stock and student-friendly fair use images.Remember,fair use is a legal defense ,not a right:
https://www.lib.auburn.edu/copyright/

Get Adobe License/ Get Adobe Stock

Auburn University students receive an Adobe Creative Cloud license for free while enrolled. Request your license here:
https://adobe.auburn.edu
Adobe Stock: https://stock.adobe.com
AU faculty and staff, log in at https://stock.adobe.com with your AU login.

Copyright Free/Friendly Sites

Unsplash: https://unsplash.com/
Stockio: https://www.stockio.com/
Pexels (includes video): https://www.pexels.com/
WikiMedia Commons: https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/Main_Page
Flickr Advanced Search: https://www.flickr.com/search/advanced Pixabay: https://pixabay.com/
Adobe Stock (With Adobe ID)
(Courtesy list only; not official endorsement)

Citing

Check the licensing statements and be sure to include attribution and/or a citation when needed.For help with attribution see:
https://wiki.creativecommons.org/wiki/Best_practices_for_attribution

For assistance visit:

https://aub.ie/ircinstruction